FACTS

14. Plaintiff PVH is, and at all relevant times has been, the owner of the Licensed Mark in the United States, its territories and possessions ("Territory").

15. On or about January 1, 2006, plaintiff PVH entered into a new license agreement ("License Agreement") with defendant IHT wherein and whereby, inter alia, PVH granted IHT the exclusive right to use the Licensed Mark in connection with the sale, distribution and promotion of the sheets, pillow cases and towels, including without limitation, wash cloths, hand towels, bath towels, bath sheets, bath mats and beach towels, excluding dish towels ("Licensed Products"), solely on a wholesale basis, to specifically approved customers, in the Territory, as well as certain limited and non-exclusive rights to manufacture the Licensed Products.

16. The license granted by PVH to IHT under the License Agreement was for a term commencing on January 1, 2006 and concluding on December 31, 2008 ("Term") (the successive calendar years of the License Agreement, commencing with the calendar year beginning on January 1, 2006, are hereinafter each individually called "Annual Period," and are jointly called "Annual Periods").

17. The License Agreement further provided that, in consideration of the rights granted to it by PVH thereunder, IHT was required to make certain periodic payments to PVH, including:

- (i) royalty payments ("Percentage Royalty Payments") in amounts calculated as set forth in the License Agreement, payable to PVH on April 30, July 31, October 31 and January 31 ("Quarterly Payment Dates") with respect to sales for the prior calendar quarter,

- (ii) guaranteed minimum royalty payments provided that Percentage Royalty Payments were less than designated guaranteed minimum amounts, and only to the extent that such guaranteed minimum amounts exceeded Percentage

Royalty Payments ("Minimum Guaranteed Royalties"), payable to PVH on the Quarterly Payment Dates for the prior calendar quarter, and

(iii) advertising expense payments, in amounts calculated as set forth in the License Agreement, payable to PVH on the Quarterly Payment Dates ("Advertising Obligations").

18. The License Agreement further provided that IHT was required to spend sums for marketing, calculated in the amounts and manner set forth in the License Agreement, with regard to the respective Annual Periods of the License Agreement ("Marketing Obligations"), and that, in the event that IHT failed to expend its Marketing Obligations as so required, it was required to pay to PVH the short-fall of its required Marketing Obligations.

19. The License Agreement further provided that IHT was required to meet certain designated minimum sales requirements for each Annual Period of the License Agreement ("Minimum Sales Requirements").

20. The License Agreement further required IHT to provide PVH with certain statements and/or reports, including:

(i) royalty statements, at the time each payment of Minimum Guaranteed Royalties became due, in form designated in the License Agreement, signed by IHT's chief financial officer, certified by an IHT officer as complete and accurate, and providing information specified in the License Agreement ("Royalty Statements"),

(ii) licensing forecasts, in form designated in the License Agreement, one with the execution of the License Agreement, and thereafter 60 days prior to the commencement of each Annual Period of the License Agreement ("Licensing Forecasts"),

The License Agreement further provided certain limitations and restrictions, including caps, on IHT's right to sell and dispose of "seconds" and "close outs," ("Seconds/Close Out Limitations"), required IHT to furnish to PVH, as part of the Royalty Statements, the details of sales of seconds and close outs for the period covered by each such Royalty Statement, and to pay Percentage Royalty Payments to PVH at a higher percentage rate for seconds and close outs sold and/or disposed by IHT in excess of the Seconds/Close Out Limitations.

22. The License Agreement further provided limitations, including caps, on deductions for returns, allowances and trade discounts that IHT was permitted to take against gross sales in determining "net sales," thereunder ("Deduction Limitations").

23. The License Agreement further provided for a cap on sales to J.C. Penney ("Penney Sales Limitation"), and provided for higher Percentage Royalty Payments to PVH upon any such sales in excess of Penney Sales Limitation.

24. The License Agreement further provided that IHT use commercially reasonable efforts to exploit the License Agreement throughout the Territory, which efforts were required to include certain activity specified therein ("Commercially Reasonable Efforts").

28. In the event that PVH exercised its Right to Immediately Terminate for specified reasons, including without limitation, IHT’s underpayment of Minimum Guaranteed Royalties and/or Percentage Royalty Payments by a designated amount with regard to any calendar quarter, or in the event PVH terminated the License Agreement for any uncured breach by IHT, then PVH was entitled to receive certain described sums as liquidated damages (“Liquidated Damages”), and not as a penalty.

29. Said sum so payable as Liquidated Damages was to be equal to the royalties that would have been payable to PVH for the remainder of the Term of the Agreement, based on Net Sales, as described in the License Agreement for the Annual Period immediately preceding the year of such termination.
